Kaua'i Landlord Summit set for March 24

LĪHU'E – The Kaua'i County Housing Agency, in partnership with the Leadership Kaua'i Class of 2023 will co-host a landlord summit at the Kaua'i War Memorial Convention Hall on Friday, March 24, from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Advanced registration is required as seating is limited. Registration will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis. The deadline to register is Friday, March 17.

The registration form can be found online at www.leadershipkauai.org/landlord-summit.

The purpose of the Landlord Summit is to support, educate and provide resources to current and potential landlords, realtors, and property managers on housing programs that help with rental assistance and other community resources. The event will also provide light breakfast and lunch.

Current and potential landlords, realtors, and property managers are encouraged to attend this free event to learn about the latest information on rental assistance and community resources.

The summit will include presentations on various landlord-specific issues and a panel featuring representatives of several community service providers and resource tables from community service providers.

If you require an ASL interpreter, materials in an alternate format, or other auxiliary aid support, or an interpreter for a language other than English, please contact kauailandlordsummit@gmail.com as soon as possible. Requests made as early as possible will allow adequate time to fulfill your request.
